

ORDC's next steps:

Complete studies on economic impacts and additional passenger rail corridors (end of 2006) = Revised system plan

Secure funding for Programmatic Environmental Impact Studies to confirm routes and station locations (2007)

Secure record of decision, preserving rail right of way and leveraging state dollars (2009)

Your next steps:

Identify train station locations
Initiate master planning efforts
Partner with ORDC to move forward
