ORDC Commissioners to Meet On Executive Director Search

(Columbus) -- A committee of the Ohio Rail Development Commission will meet next week to continue the process of discussing potential candidates for ORDC's Executive Director. The position has been open since the retirement of James Seney in September 2006.

The meeting will be held:

Tuesday, March 20, 2007
10:00 A.M.
31st Floor, Room "West A"
Vern Riffe Center
South High & State Streets
Columbus, Ohio

The meeting will be called to order at 10:00 a.m. Commissioners will immediately vote to adjourn to Executive Session for the purpose of discussing potential candidates.

(The Ohio Rail Development Commission is an independent agency operating within the Ohio Department of Transportation. ORDC is responsible for economic development through the improvement and expansion of passenger and freight rail service, railroad grade crossing safety and rail travel & tourism issues.
